

Dear Ticket Holder,

Thank you for purchasing a VIP seat for Chazz Palminteri's A Bronx Tale.

Your $150 ticket entitles you a post-show meet and greet with Mr. Palminteri.

When you arrive please go to the VIP table located in the lobby with your ticket, where you will pick up a wristband that allows you access to the meet and greet. At the conclusion of the performance we ask you to exit the theater and proceed to the lobby. An announcement will be made for you to head back to the theater. Please show your wristband to the representative for re-entry.

Please note the following as it relates to the photo opportunity:

- You must bring you own (non-professional) camera
- A representative will utilize your personal (non-professional) camera to take the actual photograph
- Small point and shoot cameras (non-professional) will be permitted. Professional cameras or audio/video recording devices will not be permitted under any circumstances

* Patrons who do not provide the proper wristband will not be allowed access to the theater. Please note that if you have received this information in error please disregard. Possession of this document is not a confirmation of purchase, nor does it give access to any program details contained in this document.
