- Full – also known as “Single”, this is the price type for a single ticket purchase by nonsubscribers.
- Promotional – these are price types we use for single ticket purchases that are part of a promotion. Examples: 20% off, SPC1, Funsaver
- Subscription – These price types are for line items that are part of a fixed seat package or a create-your-own subscription. They include SUBS6, SUBS9, SUB FULL, SUB PIK, and others
- Add On – These price types are for subscribers purchasing additional tickets. They are “Add On” because they are ADDing ONto an existing subscription. They are generally treated as single tickets. See the fees note below.
- Comp – this means “free” and we usually don’t handle them here. We will occasionally issue comp tix, which means we may exchange those tix – in these situations, please check with a lead. In general, a person needs to talk to the person or group that issued the comp ticket.
- Group – this is the price-type used by the group sales office, and we don’t handle them here
