Venue: Merriam Theater

	Pathway from Lobby: elevators, steps, etc.	Closest Elevator	Closest Restroom	Anything affect view? Sightlines?
Orchestra	No stairs required for Orchestra seating except Row Z in Center and T-Z on sides.	n/a	Men - house left from lobby. Ladies -house right. (Requires 18 steps.) Or elevator to level M.	Rows V-Z partially affected by Balcony overhang - top of proscenium/high scenery is blocked.
Balcony	Elevator or Main Staircase (44 Steps) From Row O - getting to Row A requires 2 steps per row. (No railings in Balcony.)	Main Lobby elevator.	Men - House Left at back of Balcony - Ladies - House Right at back of Balcony (requires 17 steps)	Rows O-N partially affected by FamCircle overhang - top of proscenium/high scenery is blocked.
Family Circle	Elevator or Side Staircase (located inside lobby, to the left, between the old coat check and the concession area) (76 steps) From Row H - getting to Row A requires 3 steps per row. (There are railings in FC.)	Main Lobby Elevator	Main Lobby Row A of FamCirc very little legroom.	Railings at the bottom of steps near Row A - in the line of sight for rows B-D inner side aisle seats of left and right sections. FC railing makes row B better for shorter patrons.

Assisted Listening?	Yes - provide ID for duration of event - same as AOM
Service Animals?	Yes - preferably seated on Orchestra level
ADA Entrances?	Main Broad Street Entrance is WC Accessible

No wheelchairs for transport at the Merriam.

WC Accessible restroom - from lobby take elevator to Level M. Restrooms on 3rd and 4th floor can also accommodate wheelchairs, but they're not specifically designated. Best suggestion is asking an usher to accompany patrons to level M.

Merriam Theater concessions now include alcohol - Main Lobby, Balcony, and sometimes FC level concessions.

There is no Coat Check at the Merriam.

Box Office doors open 2 hours prior to curtain.
Lobby doors Open 1 hour prior to curtain.
House doors usually open 1 hour prior to curtain, though for PBA it's 30 minutes prior.